

Mission The AIAri Learning Library has been established by the Emerging Professionals Committee of AIAri to assist ARE candidates in preparing for the licensure examination. The Learning Library contains a comprehensive set of resources for reference and study. The EPC is committed to building the Learning Library so that it continues to house the most up-to-date information for ARE prep.

Guidelines and Agreement Materials checked out from the AIAri Learning Library (AIAriLL) are for professional and educational use. The materials should be treated with care and respect.

Requests are honored on a first-come, first-serve basis.

Only ARE candidates with an Authorization to Test number may sign out materials.

A $15 borrowing fee is required at the time of each sign-out.

The maximum allowable borrowing period is 4 weeks. Borrower is responsible for contacting the Library Representative for returns.

Non-AIA members must pay a one-time joining fee of $35 to borrow materials from the Learning Library.

If borrowed material has been damaged, the candidate may not borrow additional materials until said damaged items are paid for and replaced.

Copying of any study material is prohibited; all copyright laws and the NCARB confidentiality agreement must be upheld.

Yes, I would like to participate in the AIAri Lending Library and I hereby agree to the Learning Library participation guidelines stated above.
